THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

Study at Malibu—network in Los Angeles

At our world-class campus in Malibu, you'll enjoy spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean and a beautiful natural environment nestled in the Santa Monica Mountains. Yet just minutes away is the exciting, thriving metropolis of Los Angeles, a truly international city embracing diverse cultures and a broad spectrum of industries that afford students a wealth of new business opportunities.

Small class size—large alumni network

With an average class size of just 24 students, Pepperdine ensures you receive the hands-on, personal attention you deserve while earning your degree. While classes are small and intimate, Pepperdine's business school boasts the largest alumni network in California, offering unmatched opportunities for networking and connecting with influential business leaders that can help your career.

Rigorous curriculum—collaborative learning

Combining superior academic credentials with extensive business experience, Pepperdine faculty presents coursework based on real-world business challenges so students are 100% prepared when they graduate. Though challenging, Pepperdine also encourages a collaborative learning environment based on teamwork and the sharing of ideas. This combined philosophy offers students a well-rounded business learning experience no other MBA program can match.
